Boston, July 1.—The Phillies stopped the Braves little run in victories to day by taking both of to-day's games with apparent case. The first ended 7 to 2 and the second 5 to 9. In the opening same Dayis, the former Williams College pitcher, officiated for the locals, and after a disastrous first ining, when four runs were scored, he did well. Mayer was unhittable until the fifth, but even thereafter his lead was never threatened. Mayer's homer was a feature. Both Rudolph and Alexander pitched great hall in the night cap, but costly errors by Mann and other Braves cost the former the decision. Score:

Turn about is fair play, quoth Buck Pressly yesterday afternoon, when his bunch of husky Tars began to pound out a victory in the final game of the series with the colts on the Broad Street arena. The much-heralded appearance of Mr. Foxen on the mound, opposing Mr. Markle, dellghted the fans when Umps Henderson made the grandlloquent announcement before the stands at 4:30 o'clock. Before the next hour, however, all were willing to concede that there was too much Markle, and not enough Foxen. The wildness of the latter, coupled with his two errors, aided in the scoring of the Tars, while the Norfolk heaver had the Colts practically at his mercy at all stages.

The game was far slower than the first two contests, and then it was not so pleasing to the fans to see the Colts getting the short end of the score. At that, the game had more baseball in it, thus is witnessed every day, and was an excellent exhibition of the national pastlme.

Amateur Notes

Kingan's Rellables, of the Richmond League, will go to West Point Saturday, where they will cross bats with one of the local teams of that town. Presi-dent Crowder and Secretary Cosby, of the league, will be guests of the team.

"Doe" Bransford hit a home run in yesterday's game. "Doe" is one of the old boys, but is playing a consistent game this year for Battle Axe.

Saracino has gone to the Virginia Mountain League. This puts an end to his playing organied amateur baseball in Richmond again this season. This is to be much regretted, as Saracino was one of the best amateur players here, and was the mainstay of the Grays' outfield.

The Capital City, Richmond, Com-mercial and Union Leagues have called off all scheduled games for Saturday on account of holiday. The Old Dominion and Central Leagues will play their scheduled.games.
